

AN ETHICS UPDATE: SOCIAL MEDIA, CONFLICTS, CANDOR, AND MORE! BIOGRAPHIES

The Honorable John M. Rogers (Panelist)

Judge John M. Rogers has served as a Sixth Circuit Judge since November of 2002. He was the Sixth Circuit representative on the Judicial Conference Committee on Codes of Conduct from 2008 to 2014, and was Chair of that committee from 2011 to 2014. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Rogers was a law professor at the University of Kentucky College of Law, where he taught constitutional, administrative, and international law. From 1974-78 and again from 1983-85 he was an appellate attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. Judge Rogers has twice been a Fulbright Senior Lecturer in the People's Republic of China—in Beijing in 1987-88 and in Guangzhou in 1994-95. He graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1974.

Kenneth M. Mogill (Panelist)

Kenneth M. Mogill is a partner in the law firm Mogill, Posner & Cohen. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1968 with distinction in honors political science and his juris doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1971. Since 2002 he has been an adjunct professor at Wayne State University Law School, where he teaches professional responsibility and previously taught criminal procedure. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is the 2014-2015 chairperson of the State Bar of Michigan Committee on Professional Ethics and a member of the American Bar Association Center for Professional Responsibility Committee on Continuing Legal Education. He is the principal author of Examination of Witnesses (Thomson Reuters) and was for many years a co-author of Michigan Criminal Law and Procedure (2d ed) (Thomson Reuters) and Michigan Non-Standard Jury Instructions (Thomson Reuters). He is the author of many articles on various aspects of criminal law and procedure, professional ethics and attorney discipline and a frequent speaker at conferences, seminars and law school classes on subjects related to legal ethics and attorney discipline.

Rhonda Pozehl (Panelist)

Rhonda Pozehl is a Senior Staff Attorney at the Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission. She is a graduate of Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan and the University of Toledo College of Law. After spending the first ten years of her practice with the Attorney Grievance Commission, Ms. Pozehl left for private practice with the firm Moore, Vestrand & Pozehl, PC. where she was a partner and shareholder. She continued that role with the successor firm of Moore & Pozehl, P.C. Both firms concentrated their practice on defending lawyers in grievance and malpractice actions and represented law school graduates in State Bar Character and Fitness proceedings. Ms. Pozehl returned to the Attorney Grievance Commission in 2004 and currently oversees that office's handling of trust account overdraft notifications and receivership matters. She also serves as the Commission's liaison to the State Bar of Michigan's Professional Ethics Committee. Ms. Pozehl is a regular presenter at the State Bar of Michigan's trust accounting seminar and has published articles relating to professional ethics.